life is Sweet

We're still not over the whole cupcake trend. In fact, we welcome any chance to cheat on our latest diet — all in the name of work, of course. Courtney Forrester is certainly providing plenty of temptation with her new Back Bay shop, Sweet (49 Mass Ave, Boston, 617.247.CAKE). Peddling fresh-baked cupcakes (regular and mini) in flavors including dark chocolate, lemon, and cappuccino, Forrester also plans to introduce seasonal varieties and accepts custom orders — simply call or e-mail orders@sweetcupcakes.com with plenty of time before your special occasion. Don't assume you're immune to her sugary siren song if you're not in the neighborhood, either: for better or worse, Sweet also offers delivery service.
